

DO YOU FEAR FOR YOUR SAFETY IN YOUR HOME COUNTRY? YOU CAN SEEK ASYLUM!

What is asylum?

The right to asylum is a fundamental human right that allows you to request protection in another country, legally remain there, and start a new life if you cannot return to your home country due to the fear of danger or persecution.

To get asylum in Serbia, you need to seek asylum from the state authorities.

IF YOU WANT TO SEEK ASYLUM IN SERBIA

CONTACT LEGAL COUNSELLORS FROM IDEAS.
THEY WILL HELP YOU FREE OF CHARGE TO SEEK ASYLUM.

How to get free legal aid from IDEAS?

- Contact IDEAS directly via phone or Facebook page.
- Tell asylum centre staff or NGO staff from CRPC, Sigma Plus, Indigo or UNHCR that you need free legal aid.
- Approach IDEAS legal counsellors at the asylum centres on specific days of the week.

Legal counsellor from IDEAS will:

- Provide you with a detailed explanation of all the steps involved in the asylum procedure, as well as your rights and obligations
- Assist you with registration at the police
- Help you to submit the asylum claim to the state authorities and stay with you throughout the procedure
- Prepare you for the asylum interview and provide support during the interview
- Assist you in appealing against a negative decision regarding your request for asylum

Remember that you are not alone, and that help is available to you.

IDEAS is a partner organisation of UNHCR dedicated to protecting the rights of asylum seekers and refugees and providing free legal aid.

You can contact us anytime to get more information about the right to asylum or if you have a problem exercising your rights.
